The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor creases and discoloration, characteristic of old paper. The left edge of the page is bound, showing the stitching or thread used to hold the book together. The overall tone is warm and slightly yellowed, suggesting the age of the document.

EMIGRA- TION

The following are the names of the emigrants who have been accepted for the purpose of settling in the Crown Lands in the Province of Ontario, under the provisions of the Act in that behalf passed, viz:—

On the 25th embarked Capt. Hall and Dr. King for the Arctic regions. The expedition consisted of a Grand River canoe and a North canoe, manned by twenty voyageurs and four militiamen, allowing the expedition the benefit of twenty paddles.

On the 27th three additional Grand River canoes started, manned by fifty men, having as passengers Mr. John Maclean, clerk, and the Rev. Mr. Philmore, an ecclesiastic for the Roman Catholic mission at Red River settlement.

The next departure will consist of the Company's express light canoe, to be manned by sixteen voyageurs, in charge of George Keith, Esq., partner, accompanied by Mr. Francis Butcher, clerk. [ib.]

Yesterday the heat was as powerful as it might be expected in the dog days; the thermometer averaged 85 in the shade, with an oppressive humidity rendered disagreeable by the dust with which every gust of wind was enveloped. We never recollect a day of such steady and inconvenient warmth in the whole month of April. This day the thermometer scarcely reaching 50, the wind boisterous and cold, but the dust scarcely less unpleasant. [ib.]

A very complete and commodious steamboat was launched on Saturday last from the ship-yard of Messrs. Shea and Merritt. We understand that it is the property of a company of proprietors in this city and of residents of the South shore and is intended to ply to Vancouver. [ib.]

The ship Sir John Balfour, bound for Liverpool, passed Murray Bay on Wednesday last, wind light at north. [ib.]

An awful catastrophe, by which six individuals lost their lives, occurred at Hull, on the Ottawa River, on Wednesday last. The steamer, the Beulah, was on her way to Montreal, when she was overtaken by a heavy fog, and in endeavouring to pass the competition for the proper direction of the channel, and was precipitated over the Chaudiere Falls, where all were lost in what is termed the Kettle. The unfortunate men were seen holding each other, as their raft descended into the unfathomable vortex. A passenger of the name of Eliza, wife of the late Thomas Mearns, Esquire, of Hawkesbury, with five Canadians, composed the crew of this ill-fated raft. [ib.]

The public has now before it two Addresses to His Majesty on the state of the Province from our local legislatures, both in reality complaining of the existing Constitution of the Government. The one complains bitterly of the constitution of the Assembly, and the other of the Council. The parties from which they proceed both decidedly harbour a desire that the constitutional powers of the country should be placed in their hands, to be exercised, no doubt, as they or the majority of their party may think fit. Why are these parties?—Why the very names appended to their Addresses will show the foundation of them; and when the late of the late Mr. Mearns, Esquire, of Hawkesbury, with five Canadians, composed the crew of this ill-fated raft. [ib.]

On Saturday was launched from the yard of Messrs. Jeffrey, a fine ship named the William Herdman, of about 250 tons register, built for G. H. Parke, Esq. of this city, and intended for a regular trade between this port and Belfast. She is a fine model, fast, fully built, and does credit to the builders. [ib.]

We are sorry to find that the hopes of an early sailing season have been disappointed, the renewal of cold weather, however, but a few days, will, however, be completed, and the sailing after the first of July. [ib.]

Yesterday afternoon, about three o'clock, a fire broke out in a small house in the St. Louis Road, near the Plains of Abraham, belonging to J. F. Perreault, Esq. All attempts to subdue the flames proving ineffectual, it was entirely consumed. [ib.]

The following despatch from Lord Connelley, communicated to the Quebec Board of Trade by His Excellency the Governor in Chief, contains similar intelligence to that we lately gave, in relation to the manner in which the revenues of the Customs are collected at this port. I have the honor to be, Sir, your most obedient humble servant.

H. CRAIG, Secretary

The Chairman of the Committee of Trade, Quebec.

(Copy) DOWNING STREET, Feb 21, 1833.
My Lord.—With reference to my Despatch of the 6th June last, enclosing a Memorial from several Merchants of Quebec, and to Your Lordship's report thereon, dated 22d September last, I have the honor to acquaint you, that after mature consideration of all the subjects thus brought under the notice of His Majesty's Government, it has been determined to instruct the Memorial, referred to you in my Despatch of the 6th June 1832, of the measures which I have now stated. I have, &c. &c. &c. Genobien

Lt. Gen. the Lord Aylmer, Esq. &c. &c. (Mount, Gazette.)

Lord Goderich, in a letter to the Lieutenant Gov. of Prince Edward's Island, expresses, in a short & concise epistle, his surprise at a report that had reached him, that an impression was entertained in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward's Island, that there existed an intention of annexing the latter province to Nova Scotia. His Lordship concludes his note with the following explicit denial of such an intention on the part of the Government.

"I know not whence the rumor may have originated but should it still prevail, you will have the goodness to make known, in the most public manner, that no such plan has ever been on the contemplation of His Majesty's Government."

We have seen a letter from a gentleman at Perth who describes the new steamboat Enterprise, lately launched at that village, as prepared to proceed to Kingston for her entrance, but delayed by the noncompletion of those repairs in the Rideau Canal at the Lachine, which we had hoped would be perfected by the first week in May. In the opinion of the writer the navigation will not be available before the beginning of June, a circumstance peculiarly perplexing to those interested in the trade of Perth, Bytown, &c. The intention of the proprietors, as soon as the line of Canals is completed, is to run her between Kingston and Lachine, touching at Perth and Grenville on the St. Lawrence river. Being fast, bottomed, & her wheel in the stern, the new steamer is perfectly adapted for navigating the river Tay and the small Canals; her beam is 19 feet 4 inches, and she draws about twenty inches water when fully loaded. Her cabin is neatly fitted up with twelve gentlemen's and six ladies' berths. [ib.]

UNITED STATES.

EASTERN BOUNDARY.

The resolutions of the secret session of the Senate of the United States in 1832, have at length found their way to the public eye, and are as follow.

1. Resolved, That the General Government have no constitutional power to cede or transfer to a foreign nation any portion of the territory or inhabitants of any one of the United States, without the consent of such State.

2. Resolved, That the power of the General Government in establishing the exterior limits of the United States, does not extend to the making of a new line of boundary for any of the States, but in the ascertaining and defending the true line described and agreed upon in the treaty of peace, and in settling the fair construction and real intent of said treaty.

3. Resolved, That opinion of the King of the Netherlands, as communicated through our ministers at the Hague, does not purport to ascertain or define the Northeastern Boundary of the United States, described in the treaty of peace of 1783, but recommends a new line, palpably distinct and different from the true line of said treaty.

4. Resolved, That the Netherlands Majesty has not decided any question submitted to his Majesty, relative to his boundary, but declares his inability to do so, and in expressing an opinion of what would be a suitable & convenient line of division between the U. States and the Netherlands.

5. Resolved, That the United States have never in any manner, by treaty or otherwise, obligated upon them to submit to or acquiesce in such advice, and have no power without the consent of the State of Maine to agree upon, or establish the new line of boundary thus recommended.

6. Resolved, That the Senate recommended to, and advise the President of the United States to open and pursue friendly negotiations with His Britannic Majesty, for the purpose—1st. Of settling with precision that line of the highlands lying between the St. Croix river, and north of the St. John river, which is designated in the treaty of peace of 1783 as the northern angle of Nova Scotia, and of surveying and marking upon the surface of the earth the boundary line between the U. States and the dominions of Great Britain. Such extends from the source of the St. Croix directly north to the above-mentioned northwest angle of Nova Scotia, thence along the said highland which divide those rivers that only themselves into the river Saint Lawrence from those which fall into the Atlantic ocean, to the northwestmost point of Connecticut river. 2d. Of settling to the United States and their claims the undisturbed enjoyment of the right of navigation of the Saint Lawrence.

We suspect that the following anecdote contains more of humor than truth, but it is perfectly in character. While Col. Crockett was in Washington, with his daughter, a very gentleman who had been paying his addresses to her, wrote to him requesting his permission that they might be married. The reply of the Colonel was in the following humorous style:—
"Dear Sir—I received your letter. Go ahead."

RADIHES.

Most of our garden gardens are too rich for the radi; and but few gardens are found that do not contain more or less of the vice worm. Hence we are induced to make experiments and we have raised them at least semi-transparent and as brittle as glass. Our method is, merely to mix two parts of sand with one part of common garden earth. Our earth of clayey nature is preferable to the garden soil. Since adopting the above method, we have not failed in a single instance, of raising an abundance of smooth, clear, and fine flavoured radishes. [Hing Gazette]

ORNAMENTAL TREES.

Do our farmers collect trees easily and cheaply they can add to the beauty, and enhance the value of their farms &c. to the same end to a great service to the community, by setting out ornamental trees near the roads which intersect them. There are a number of varieties in our forests which are well worth the care and attention of every farmer. The stately Elm, the shady Maple, the noble Ash, and the towering Birchwood, will all grow in almost any soil, where they can get root, and will stand, after generations, for centuries. We need not pass a tree which has been planted and nurtured by man, but we feel gratitude and respect towards the hand that did it. How interesting and delightful would it be to the noble, to see every farmer would like to be able to transplant from the thicket to the road sides, such trees as would be of use, and yield a good shade. It would afford pleasure and satisfaction to him and to his flock.

greatly the weary traveller, to shelter himself beneath their branches. It would prove the boon of taste and the object of nature, to look upon them in their strength and beauty. The stranger, as he passed, would be delighted, and report well of us to others, and property will not suffer in value when it has that belonging to it which with afford either pleasure or gratification. Every village should have its streets lined with trees, both for the purpose of health and ornament. [Monte Farmer]

HORSES.

There should be kept in fine order, that they may be able to retain their flesh and strength throughout the laboring months of April & May.—Breeding mares should not only be not overworked, but carefully looked after, and not overfed, but about lured or frightened. They should not suddenly change from hard labor to ease, but should gradually have their work lightened. [L.V. Farmer]

MULBERRY.

Let no farmer, who wishes to enhance the value of his own property for his children, and benefit his country, neglect to sow a sowing worth of white mulberry, and buy one or more plants of the Chinese mulberry, morio, multicaulis. By thus doing, in the course of three or four years he will have several thousand plants. If the multicaulis is increased, by laying it buds sufficient to inoculate the others will be obtained. [ib.]

LOCUST.

By an expense of a few shillings, any farmer can purchase seed sufficient for many thousands, of this useful tree. A writer in a Kentucky paper says he sows the seeds in hills, and cultivates them as he does corn—puts six or eight seeds in a hill. An expeditious way of obtaining a plantation of locusts, is to set out a number of locusts in various parts of the fields, cultivate the ground around, and in the spring, after the trees have sprung and their roots cut them down. Numerous young ones will sprout up. [ib.]

PLUMS.

This is the proper season to clip off the tips, or last year's growth of the bushes of Plum Trees, to improve the fruit of its maturity. It is said to be an infallible remedy for the blight and falling so common to the Egg Plum. [Polynia Sentinel]

MELONS AND CUCUMBERS.

Don't forget, when the proper season arrives, that powdered charcoal scattered about the roots of your melons, and about all other garden plants, will keep them from being troubled by the cucumber beetle. [Hing Gazette]

THE ANTIQUE DR. COOPER, in his "Memoirs of a Nullifier, written by himself," gives us the following accurate report of the examination of a pedlar of the universal Yankee nation, before one Rhadamanthus, formerly one of the Chief Justices in the Supreme Court, before, but now a trading Justice in South Carolina.

"Soon we heard one of the constables call out 'Virgil Hoskins! Virgil Hoskins!' Here, answered our companion, the Yankee pedlar, making up to the bar. Rhadamanthus was seated with a great number of huge account books before him. 'Virgil Hoskins, is your name?' 'I said he. Here it is, among the H's, page 49, folio 335. Ah! Virgil, there's a terrible loan account against you. Let's see a few of the charges. (Reads.)
Virgil Hoskins, Dr.
June 27, 18—No selling in the course of one peddling expedition, 395,338 wooden nutmegs. 15-523 Spanish eggs made of calash leaves, and 645 wooden chairs. What do you say to that charge Hoskins?
Hoskins. Why that was counted in our place the greatest pedlar trip that was ever made over the Potomac.
Rhadamanthus reads June 28, 18. To stealing an old grindstone, smearing it over with butter, and then selling it as a cheese.
Hoskins in great surprise. Jimminy, surely you wouldn't banish a man for that, would you?
Rhadamanthus reads. Dec. 13, 18—To making a counterfeit dollar of pewter, when you were six years old, and cheating your own father with it.
Hoskins. Daddy was mighty glad when he found it out. He said it showed I had a genius.
Rhadamanthus reads. 2, 19—To taking a worn out pair of shoes which you took on the road and selling them as a pair of old lady's, as being actually the shoes of St. Paul.
Hoskins with exultation. I made four dollars twelve and a half cents by that.
Rhadamanthus reads. July 2, 18—To taking an empty old watch case, putting a live cricket inside, and then selling it as a patent lever in full motion.
Hoskins. He, he, he—that was one of the cutest tricks ever played in all my life.
Rhadamanthus. It would occupy me a week Hoskins, to go through all the charges against you, but this list is sufficient. I really am out of patience with New England, for it gives me more trouble than the whole world put together. You are sentenced to be thrown into a lake of boiling molasses, where twenty all your old grindstones, tied to your neck, and remain there forever.

THE INFIDEL.

It is an awful condemnation upon the doctrines of Infidelity that its most ardent supporters have either miserably falsified their sentiments in the moment of trial, or terminated their existence in obscurity and utter wretchedness. The gifted author of the 'Age of Reason' died the last years of his life in a manner which the meanest slave that ever trembled beneath the lash of the taskmaster, could have no cause to envy. Rossini indeed he pointed out as, in some degree, an exception, but it is well known that the enthusiastic philosopher was a miserable and disappointed man. He met death it is true with calmness. But he had no pure and beautiful hopes beyond the perishing things of the natural world. He loved the works of God for their exceeding beauty, not for their manifestations of an overruling intelligence. Life had become a burthen to him; but his spirit recoiled at the distant prospect of the silence of the sepulchre—the cold and unbroken sleep and slow wasting away of mortality. He perished a worshipper of the unimpassioned glory of his Creator. At the closing hour of day when the broad West was glowing like the gates of paradise, and the vine hilly hills of his beautiful land were bathed in the rich tints of sunset the philosopher departed. The last glance of his glazing eye, was to him an everlasting farewell to existence, the last homage of a god like intellect to holiness and beauty. The blackness of darkness was before him; the valley of the shadow of death was to him an abode of gloom and eternal life beyond it was shrouded from his vision. Written.

SUMMARY.

TWO INFANTS UNITED LIKE THE SIAMESE TWINS.

A singular example of monstrosity is now in London, at Pater-square, & has been seen by Sir A. Cooper, with many other distinguished members of the profession. It will be shortly exhibited to public view.—This monster was born lately at Exeter, and presents two bodies united by the abdomen. As in all such cases, the two infants are of the same sex, and of the same age. It is singular to observe how peculiar are the laws of nature even in her vagaries. Were we disposed to enlarge upon this luna natia we might allude to several cases of a singular monstrosity, in which two infants are united in both infants. To the physiologist and obstetrician such singular phenomena afford a large field for speculation. [Lancet, Medical and Surgical Journal.]

DOMESTIC.

GOOD REER.

We had a cheerless w. City of money tempted the miserably shifts to "make out" the other." Our intercourse with country has been carried on through the mire, while the wealthy Dutch send have languished over their gold, for want of good sleighing to spend it. Our prospects again brighten with the face of nature, and the wretched him of business returns with the singing of birds. If the winter of 1832-33 has been frozen up, they are not now thawed to clot and stagnate. The future prospects of St. Catharines are vivifying to every honest, industrious, enterprising citizen. Already, in anticipation, we hear the currency gurgling from hand to hand, through the whole line of debtors and creditors and the lawyers who are busy in drawing and granting-hopes. If we have not found a mine, we have found favour in the sight of God and man. Our soil is fertile, and our farmers are thrifty; our springs are sweet, or impregnated with valuable minerals. The Millers within a narrow compass hereabout, will send some twenty or thirty thousand barrels of flour to Montreal, and the St. Catharines Salt Company will bring home the price of about thirty thousand bushels of salt, during nearly the same period. Mention, Government has granted £7,500 for the Welland Canal, and the company will probably have recourse to other means within their reach, for raising a considerable additional amount. Nearly £60,000 has been granted for the war losses, the claims of which are generally poor and will be of little service but a circulating medium is necessary to develop resources in this section of Canada, inferior to none in British North America. [St. Cath. Jour.]

WELLAND CANAL.

We have it from good authority that the repairs to the Welland Canal are completed, as to render the navigation safe by the first week in May—not later than the 10th certainly.

LATEST FROM HAVANA.

By the ship Rogers-Williams, which arrived at Bristol on Monday in 12 days from Havana, we learn that the cholera had entirely disappeared, an estimate had been made of the number of deaths by the disease, which was found to amount to fourteen thousand five hundred.

CHOLERA AT MATANZAS.

Recent accounts from Matanzas, in respect to the scourge, are somewhat reconcilable. The latest dates are of the 15th, which represent the deaths in that place to be forty a day up to that time, whereas letters of the 13th, affirm the mortality to have been at the rate of one hundred and fifty per cent. We are inclined to give credit to the former account, such destruction as the latter implies is irreconcilable in a place that reckons only ten thousand inhabitants, & in which great pains had been taken by the public authorities to guard against its ravages.

LATEST FROM CALCUTTA.

Letters received in Salem from Calcutta, announce the bankruptcy of the great agency house of Alexander & Co. for the enormous sum of Nineteen Millions of Dollars. Many individuals were ruined by this failure. [Gazette.]

TRIAL OF THE REV. E. IRVING FOR HERESY, before the presbytery of Annapolis.

Wednesday the Presbytery of Annapolis, met in the church of Annapolis, for the purpose of trying the Rev. Edward Irving, on charges of heresy. The trial was opened by a very long discussion, in which Mr. Irving defended himself, he was removed from the bar, by the Moderator pro-

Mr. Robinson, one of the Commissioners appointed by the Assembly, has been constantly on the Canal since the latter part of March, and about 200 men have been employed since that time in deepening the places which were found above, and repairing the two locks one of which is repaired with cut stone, in a permanent manner, a ship in the deep cut, of considerable extent, which came in March, has been removed.

It has been the object of the Commissioners to ascertain all the impediments to the perfect navigation of the Canal, & they have as far as their means and time would admit removed them.

We are assured that the deep cut, and indeed every part of the Canal, will be in better order than in any former season; and from accounts received from Oswego and Cleveland, a vast quantity of produce and merchandise are in readiness to pass through it.

On this great and important work, the public, and many of our Legislators, have hitherto had imperfect information, which is to be remedied, inasmuch as no undertaking of modern times is so important, compared with it, in point of absolute utility, in promoting and extending the benefits of Agriculture and Commerce. Should not as many of our Legislators, as can be possibly made it convenient, visit the Canal this summer, that by actual observation, their minds may become fortified in a cause of such universal importance, to promote with firmness and consistency: such measures as will perfect the work for all necessary purposes, in such manner as to preclude all doubts of its permanency.—[Patrol.]

YORK FOUNDRY AND STEAM ENGINE MANUFACTORY.

Although this establishment has existed for some time in York, we had no conception of its magnitude and importance, until we had an opportunity of witnessing it a few days ago. There is perhaps no establishment of the kind superior, if equal to this in the British North American Province. The works comprise seven turning lathes, a boring mill, drilling machine, blowing apparatus, &c., all of which are put in operation by one ten horse power high pressure Engine. There are also ten or a dozen separate apartments in which are carried on the various businesses of Moulding, Casting, Pattern making, Blacksmithing, Copper and Tin working, finishing, Plough making, Wheelwrighting, &c. &c. The quantity of the number of workmen employed amounts to about eighty. Messrs. Shadley, Dutch and company, the proprietors of these extensive works, are now making a number of Steam Engines, of 50 horse power each, for the steamer "Cobourg," now building 30 horse power that name—two ditto for the steamer "Huron," and the John B. at Kingston—one and a half horse power for the Dry Dock at Niagara, and some others, to the amount altogether of near nine thousand pounds.

Our object in visiting this factory, is to call the public attention to this extensive and important establishment, of the existence of which, probably, a great majority of the people of the Province were, perhaps until now, like ourselves, comparatively ignorant, and we are sure that every person in the Colony who feels interested in its prosperity, will be gratified to hear of the existence of such an important manufactory in their own country, and will feel it their duty and their interest to render it all the support and patronage in their power.—[York Courier.]

THE TIMES:

BELLEVILLE, U. C. MAY 11, 1833.

We are without any later news from Europe.

We extract from the Upper Canada Courier, of the first instant, the following Correspondence, relative to the removal of Messrs. Boulton and Hagerman, from the offices of Attorney and Solicitor General of this Province.—It is a subject, which cannot fail to produce much interest, not only among the friends of those gentlemen, who must regret their being so unceremoniously ousted, but of importance, and lucrative situations, the duties of which, as far as we know, they have on all occasions discharged with credit to themselves, and the Government, but the affair may be supposed to involve important considerations, in relation to the motives, & policy which have dictated their dismissal—in respect of which, but few of the constitutional Upholders of the Province can be supposed to be indifferent—particularly if we admit, as the probable cause, of the removal of those gentlemen, their votes in the legislature, on the question of the expulsion of MacKenzie. Mr. Hagerman having embarked at New York, previous to his removal, being known in this Province, the first intimation he will receive of it, will probably be, on his arrival in England. His surprise will no doubt be great, on receiving intelligence of his being no longer Solicitor General, of Upper Canada—but, however great may be his surprise, it is to be hoped it will not impair his usual self-possession, and ability to vindicate his own cause, and that of his learned friend, before His Majesty's Government, and that he may be enabled to show, by just explanation, that the fault which is charged upon him, as the cause of his removal from office, and by which he must be a material sufferer, ought rather to be considered, a meritorious act, than otherwise, and such an one, as no member of the Imperial Parliament, holding office under government, or not, could or would have abstained from, under similar circumstances.

DISMISSAL OF THE CROWN OFFICERS OF UPPER CANADA BY LORD VISCOUNT GODERICH.—In a Postscript to a consular proportion of the last Saturday's Courier, which were mailed for the country, we announced the fact, that HENRY JOHN BOULTON, Esquire, and CHRISTOPHER ALEXANDER HAGERMAN, Esquire, had been removed from the offices of Attorney and Solicitor General, of this Province; but neither space nor time admitted of our explaining the causes of that removal.

Since that publication, we have received the following communication, together with the accompanying documents, which we have to lay before the people of Upper Canada.

To the Editor of the Courier of Upper Canada, York, 30th April, 1833.

Sir, Having filled for the last sixteen years the situation of a Law Officer of the Crown—first as Solicitor General, and later as Attorney General of this Province; and having, without a previous intimation of any part of my conduct, official, or political, being disapproved of by His Majesty's Government, been suddenly removed from office, I feel it to be an act of justice to myself, as well as to Mr. Hagerman, who is now absent from the Province, and whose dismission is announced in the same despatch, not to leave room for unfounded and injurious surmises, as to the cause of our removal. As I do not know that I can adopt any measure so soon as to publish, for this purpose, as the publishing, of my own conduct, and the official correspondence which has attended this unexpected measure of His Majesty's Government.

Your obdt. servt.
(Signed) H. J. BOULTON,
GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
29th April, 1833.

Sir, I have the honor, by the direction of the Lieutenant Governor, to transmit to you, accompanying copy of a despatch which His Majesty's Government has directed to inform you and the Solicitor General, that His Majesty regrets he can no longer avail himself of your services; and that you are to be relieved from the duties of your respective offices.

I have, &c.
(Signed) Wm. ROWAN,
HENRY JOHN BOULTON, Esquire
&c. &c. &c.
No. 113.

(COPY)
DOWNTOWN STREET,
6th March, 1833.

Sir, By the accounts I have lately received of the proceedings of the Legislature of Upper Canada, I have learnt that the Attorney and Solicitor General of that Province, have in their places in the Assembly, taken a part directly opposed to the avowed policy of His Majesty's Government, members of the Provincial Parliament, Mr. Boulton and Mr. Hagerman, are of course, bound to conform to their own view of what is most for the interest of their constituents, and of the Colony at large—but if upon questions of great political importance, they unfortunately differ in opinion from His Majesty's Government, it is obvious that they cannot continue to hold confidential situations in His Majesty's service, without either betraying their duty as members of the Legislature, or bringing the sincerity of the Government into question, by their opposition to the policy which His Majesty has been advised to pursue.

His Majesty can have no wish that Mr. Boulton and Mr. Hagerman should adopt the first of those alternatives—but on the other hand, he cannot allow the measures of his Government to be impeded by the opposition of the Law Officers of the Crown. In order therefore, that these gentlemen may be at full liberty as members of the Legislature, to follow the dictates of their own judgment, I have received His Majesty's commands, to inform you that he regrets that he can no longer avail himself of your services, and that from the time of your receiving this despatch, they are to be relieved from the duties imposed upon them in their respective offices.

You will transmit copies of this despatch to Mr. Boulton and Mr. Hagerman.

I have the honor, &c. &c.
(Signed) GODERICH.
M. G. SIR JOHN COLBORNE, K. C. B.
York, 29th April, 1833.

Sir, Under the circumstances in which I find myself suddenly placed, without any previous intimation from His Majesty's Government, and more especially in the absence of the Solicitor General, who is equally affected by the measure, and myself, I feel it due to him as well as to myself, and to our respective friends, to request, that His Excellency will have the kindness to inform me for what breach of public duty His Majesty has been advised to remove us from office? I have the honor, &c. &c.

(Signed) H. J. BOULTON.

To Ld. COL. ROWAN,
Private Secretary to the
LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR
GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
29th April, 1833.

Sir, I have the honor to acquaint you in reply to your letter of this day, that the Lieutenant Governor understands, that the part of your political proceedings to which the despatch of the Secretary of State particularly adverts, is that you and the Solicitor General, promoted the resignation of a member of the Assembly, although the constitutional objections to that course had been conveyed to His Excellency by His Majesty's Government, and were, it is concluded, communicated to him by you.

I have the honor, &c. &c.
(Signed) Wm. ROWAN,
To H. J. BOULTON, Esquire,
&c. &c. &c.

Our first knowledge of the fact of Health Officers having been appointed by His Excellency, for this place, under the provisions of the late act of Parliament, is obtained, by glancing over the columns of the Montreal Gazette, of the 24th instant, where we see the following names given—James H. Samson, Henry Baldwin, Robert Smith, T. Parker Esquires—and Dr. Ridley.

In a late number of this paper, we published, entire, the act under which the foregoing appointments, and those for several other places in this province, have been made—and we shall take an opportunity to publish, in a future number, some parts of that act as are essential to their requiring a full knowledge of the power vested in the Health Officers and what will be required of our inhabitants generally in aid of the preservation of health, should it be our misfortune to be visited by malignant disease during the present year.

We learn by our latest New York Papers, that a very extensive fire took place in that City, on the night of the 30th ult. It originated in Stables of "Mease Kip & Brown's" Stage proprietors, on the corner of "Hudson, and Bank Streets." Nearly all the buildings, on four blocks, or squares, have been destroyed—computed at, from one hundred and thirty, to one hundred and fifty houses. Between three and four hundred families, were driven into the streets—and the loss of property has been estimated at two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Forty horses were burnt to death, and eight carriages destroyed. The fire is supposed to have been the work of a female incendiary between whom, and one of the Stage drivers, some misunderstanding had taken place.

We observe by the Chronicle that the Steam Boat United States while on her way to Cape Vincent on Monday the 29th ult. grounded on a ledge of rocks, near Pigeon Island called the "Saw and Pigs." The Steamers William IV and Great Britain went to assist at two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Forty horses were burnt to death, and eight carriages destroyed. The fire is supposed to have been the work of a female incendiary between whom, and one of the Stage drivers, some misunderstanding had taken place.

The want of rain, which has been complained of for some time in this vicinity, it appears, has also experienced in other parts of the province.—The following extract from the Cornwall Observer, describes the injury likely to ensue in that part of the country, in consequence of genial showers being withheld.

The weather has been very dry this spring, and it is to be feared that if there is not rain soon, winter wheat will be materially injured by the drought. We have seen several fields apparently dead, and we presume to say will not yield half a usual crop, and we believe some farmers in this vicinity have ploughed up their fall wheat and sowed the same ground with spring wheat.

The different Health Officers have fulfilled their disagreeable task of inspecting the premises of every inhabitant.—They have allowed a few days more for the removal of all nuisances which may affect the health of the Town at the end of which period they will again visit it in their regular divisions. With but a few despicable exceptions, they have found the inhabitants willing to adopt those precautionary measures which prudence and experience imperatively demand, which are equally essential to their own comfort and the public safety. [K. Chronicle.]

We are informed that the inhabitants of Bytown have it in contemplation to establish a newspaper in that village, to be held in shares of $2.10. each. If we were to judge from the literary ability which we know to be in the possession of many gentlemen in Bytown, and from the public spirit of the inhabitants generally, we should conclude that a newspaper could not fail to thrive among them.—[ib.]

We understand that a serious fire occurred this morning in the lower part of the Town, but we have not been able to learn particulars.—[York Patriot.]

The John Bull of the 17th march, after noticing the resignation of his office of Privy Seal by Lord Durham, and his subsequent promotion to an Earlom, announces that Viscount Goderich will, it is understood, be appointed Lord Privy Seal, Mr. Stanley will take the seals of the Colonial Department, Sir John Lubbock is promoted to Ireland as Chief Secretary of War. We do not know what confidence may be placed in the information of the John Bull.—[M. Gaz.]

We were much gratified yesterday in witnessing the experimental performance of a new engine constructed by the late Mr. Warr, on board the Britannia, lately built by Messrs. C. Torrance, and Co. for the Laprairie trade. The boat, though in an unfinished state, made a trip to Little distance below Longue Pointe, and effected it within a hour, and in returning she came up with rather low steam in fifty minutes. In her passage up and down, the boat was repeatedly greeted by cheers, and salutes from the other boats in port.—Some slight changes will be required in her engine, and the interior accommodations, but she can commence her trips across the river.

The workmen are now busily engaged in putting the machinery into a new boat lately launched, and intended to ply between this place and Varennes, and we notice that the boat intended to run to Longueuil is so far advanced, that her appearance on the water cannot now be distant. It is certainly a very pleasing circumstance to notice the daily increase of steam vessels upon our rivers—they are a true indication of the increasing prosperity and wealth of the country. We should think that a boat to run to L'Assomption, or to Terrebonne alternately, would be a great encouragement, as the trade of that part of the District requires only a proper outlet rapidly to increase.—[Montreal Gazette.]

We were highly gratified, on a late visit to Mr. Brown's painting room, to witness the peculiarly successful manner in which he has delineated the portraits of Lieut. Col. Macdonough, 70th Highlanders, and of Capt. B. N. The former is an absolute fac-simile of the Colonel, and at a moment when his countenance displayed unusual animation, and in every particular of the countenance is marked by an accuracy and skill, that bespeak the talents of the artist. Mr. Brown has been equally fortunate in representing the representation of the latter with his utmost correctness, infusing into the countenance that glow of internal happiness, that marked the appearance of the gallant Captain, when addressed by the citizens of Montreal, on the occasion of his health being given at the public dinner. These specimens of Mr. Brown's art have been seen, we are on application to the artist, at Mr. H. Hotel, where that gentleman has taken up his residence. We are happy to find that from the detached situation of his late painting-room at Rascos's, the whole of his collection was fortunately saved.

An extract from a Bombay paper affords the probability, that all the diplomatic correspondence hitherto conducted in the Persian is likely to be henceforth effected through the medium of the English language, a circumstance highly calculated to extend English literature and English influence throughout the native States, and to facilitate contributing eventually to substitute the latter language for the native dialect. We rejoice to see the spirit of British civilization extending itself to our Eastern dominions without experiencing that prejudiced resistance, that in this country, is exhibited to every thing that has ever breathed a British atmosphere, or even bears a slightest resemblance to a British name. [ib.]

The Telegraphs are in operation at Gros-Lieu, The Floating Light, Brilliant, Capt. Marchant, beat down the river this afternoon, for her station at the Traverse.—[Niagara Gazette Monday.]

On the arrival of the Lady of the Lake yesterday at the Queen's wharf, so many people immediately came on board, that it caused the water to enter through one of the windows of the ladies cabin. Fortunately, however, she sustained no material injury, and will be able to proceed on her trips to Montreal in a few days.—[ib.]

INDUSTRY.

I have lived, said Dr. E. D. Clark, to know that the great secret of human happiness is this—never suffer your energies to stagnate. The old adage of "too many iron in the fire," conveys an admirable hint. You cannot have too many poker, tongs and all—keep them all going.

POSTSCRIPT.

The New York Albion which came to hand, as we were preparing for press, announces the arrival of the South America, bringing London news to the 1st of April, by which the following late intelligence is furnished.

There has been a partial change of the Ministry—Lord Cowley, who resigned to say, has left the Colonial Office, and has been succeeded by Mr. J. Lecky, Member for Petersfield, a gentleman, it is said, of firmness and ability—Lord Goderich becomes Lord Privy Seal, and Mr. Stanley becomes Chief Secretary for the Colonies. Mr. Hobhouse succeeds Mr. Stanley as Secretary for Ireland. All these changes are for the better. During the last two years, imbecility has reigned to a terrible extent in the Colonial office.

We do not know, from the hasty glance we have taken of the papers, what further changes are contemplated.

The Irish Coercion Bill was read a third time on the 29th of March and passed. For the Bill 345, against it 76, majority 269.

Don Miguel's troops have made another assault on Oporto, and have been again defeated.

Israhim Pacha has pushed his advanced parties towards Smyrna, but peace it is said is about to be concluded.

The Duchess of Berri continues quite ill.
